Research Centres in Planning Faculty

Dipartimento di Architettura e Pianificazione (DIAP)

The main activity of the DIAP is research, financed either through ordinary funding of the Ministry for the University and Scientific Research, the National Research Council, the European Union, and through research contracts with public and private bodies. The main areas of research and consultancy in the field of planning are: territorial analysis, the analysis and design of planning processes, the preparation of planning tools at all the territorial scales, the design of new policy instruments like time-oriented plans, housing policies, parks plans and projects, negotiated development schemes, traffic plans. DIAP is articulated in 9 research areas:-

- Il governo delle trasformazioni Urbane e Territoriali: politiche, piani, progetti
- Studi storici e geografici
- Architettura e disegno urbano
- Urbanistica dei tempi e della mobilità
- Metodi e Tecniche di Pianificazione Urbanistica
- Progettazione integrata
- Architettura del paesaggio e delle infrastrutture
- Progettazione e rappresentazione di sistemi ambientali complessi
- Pianificazione territoriale e ambientale and 23 Research Laboratories that develop the different specialisation areas and where resources are collected and organised. It has its own Library specialised in the various planning fields with more than one hundred journals, 4.500 volumes, videos and a specialised “Archive of strategic plans”.

Students organisation: An association of ex alumni of the planning school is going to be organised

Publications:

DIAP Publishes since 1988 the Journal “TERRITORIO” that is a nationally recognised journal in the field of planning education and research.
